MODEL Set-1Objective

1- Read the passage given below and choose the correct options to answer the question:-

Yoga is the ancient Indian system to keep a person fit in body and mind. It is basically a system of self-treatment. According to the yogic view, diseases, disorders and ailments are the result of some faulty ways of living, bad habits, lack of proper knowledge and unsuitable food. The diseased are thus the resultant state of a short or prolonged malfunctioning of the body system. Since the root cause of a disease lies in the mistakes of the individual. Its cure also lies in correcting the mistakes by the same individual. Thus yoga lies entirely on the effort of the patient to cure himself. The Yoga expert shows only the path and works no more than a counselor. The yogic practice of treatment comprises three steps namely proper diet, proper yogic practice and proper knowledge of things concerning the self.

Q 1- Read the passage given below and answer any five question:- 2x5=10

The Mohwa is one of the most important of Indian forest trees, not for its timber but for its delicious flowers. To the people of Central India it provides the most important article of food as the flowers can be stored almost indefinitely.

The Mohwa tree has large thick grey bark. Most of the leaves fall from February to April and during that time the scented flowers, appear in close bushes of a dozen or so. It is at night that the tree blooms and at dawn each short lived flower falls to the ground. A couple of Months after the flowering period, the fruit opens. They are fleshy green berries. They are quite large and contain from one to four shiny brown seeds.

The gathering of the edible Mohwa flowers is an important business to the country people. Below the tree the ground is cleared and swept and at dawn blooms are collected and allowed to dry out on the earth. The flowers taste something like pressed figs, sugar pudding and other sweetmeats are made from them. All parts of the fruits, both ripe and unripe are used. A thick oil is extracted from the Kernels. It being yellowish, gives it the name of “Butter Tree. The Oil is used for cooking, making soap and candles.
